In an interview we glean the following information in regard to his former life and occupation: "My father was born in Philadelphia, Pa., and spent the early portion of his life in New York and New Jersey; from thence moving to Canada and from there to Lapeer county, Michigan in 1850. He was what was called in my boyhood days a "Blue Bellied Yankee." I was born in Norfolk Co., Ontario, in 1847 and received what education I have in the public schools of Ontario and Michigan. Love for this country, its institutions and the American flag, were inherited from an honored father. I joined the Union Army as a Volunteer private when I was 16 years old, in 1863, serving in the Sixteenth, Michigan, until the war closed. Was mustered out of service as a sergeant, in August 1865. Since that time I have been engaged in the lumbering industry almost continually in almost all capacities less than that must have talked of and more or less envied one or "Lumber Baron" or "Prince." Am a present employee of the Chicago Lumbering Co., of Michigan.

There were four men in the crowd, they sat down on a log to rest, laying their guns on the ground. One of the men suggested that they go to the wagon which was standing near by and get a lunch; no sooner said than done as they arose Greshen picked up his gun (which was an old style muzzle loader) by taking hold of the barrel as he attempted to raise it from the ground he was caught on a twig and caused the gun to discharge its contents. I was loaded with heavy buck shot. I shot struck Tuttle's arms below the elbow tearing the right arm in a frightful manner and filling the left full of shot. N. Stevens received three shots in his left leg above the knee. Dr. Bohn was summoned and done all he could to save the arms. Four inches of the bone was taken out of the left arm. Tuttle was brought to town Monday and taken to the Globe Hotel. There at grave doubts of his having either arm saved. Though at present he is improving fast under the care of Dr. Bohn. He is a poor man owning a small farm near Germfask.

A. C. Carpenter the efficient manager for the C. L. Co., in their lumbering operations in this end of the county, left Wednesday for Walsh, Mich. His prospects for nomination for representative to the state legislature for Delta District are growing brighter each day. In an interview we glean the following information in regard to his former life and occupation: "My father was born in Philadelphia, Pa., and spent the early portion of his life in New York and New Jersey; from thence moving to Canada and from there to Lapeer county, Michigan in 1859. He was what was called in my boyhood days a 'Blue Bellied Yankee.' I was born in Norfolk Co., Ontario, in 1847 and received what education I have in the public schools of Ontario and Michigan. Love for this country, its institutions and the American flag, were inherited from an honored father. I joined the Union Army as a Volunteer private when I was, 16 years old, in 1862, serving in the Sixteenth, Michigan, until the war closed. Was mustered out of service as a sergeant, in August 1865. Since that time I have been engaged in the lumbering industry almost continually in almost all capacities less than that met talked of and more or less envied one of 'Lumber Baron' or 'Prince.' Am a present employed by the Chicago Lumbering Co., of Michigan.

Dr. F. P. Bohn left Tuesday for Grand Marais.

Geo. Tuttle and N. Stevens were both accidentally shot Sunday while out hunting, by a man by the name of John Greshen. There were four men in the crowd, they sat down on a log to rest, laying their guns on the ground. One of the men suggested that they go to the wagon which was standing near by and get a lunch; no sooner said, than down as they arose Greshen picked up the gun (which was an old style muzzle loader) by taking hold of the barrel as he attempted to raise it from the ground he happened caught on a twig and caused the gun to discharge its contents. I was loaded with heavy buck shot. The shot struck Tuttle's arms below the elbow tearing the right arm in a frightful manner and filling the left full of shot. N. Stevens received three shots in his left leg above the knee. Dr. Bohn was summoned and done all he could to save the arms. Four inches of the bone was taken out of the left arm Tuttle was brought to town Monday and taken to the Globe Hotel. There at grave doubts of his having either arm saved. Though at present he is improving fast under the care of Dr. Bohn. He is a poor man owning a small farm near Germfask.

"Wake up" Jacob, day is breaking!" So said De Witt's Little Early Riser to the man who had taken time to arouse his sluggish liver. A. S. Putnam & Co.

Mamie, the little daughter of Capt. McWilliams fell from a shed Friday afternoon and sustained a fractured arm.

Persons who have a coughing spell every night, on account of a tickling sensation in the throat, may overcome it at once by a dose of One Minute Cough Cure. A. S. Putnam & Co.

Pass the good word along the line. Piles can be quickly cured without an operation by simply applying De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. A. S. Putnam & Co.

Chas. Mastan while passing under the upper mill Saturday morning amused himself by throwing a small rope over the swiftly revolving shaft. The rope was fastened to his thumb and wrapped about the shaft in such a manner as to make it taut. The little fellow was hurled around the shaft two or three times and would have been killed had his thumb not been torn off under the strain. Small boys should not be allowed about machinery.

We are anxious to do a little good in this world and can think of no pleasanter or better way to do it than by recommending One Minute Cough Cure as a preventive of pneumonia, consumption and other serious lung troubles that follow neglected colds. A. S. Putnam & Co.

Last summer one of our grand children was sick with a severe bowel trouble. Our doctor's remedies had failed, then we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave very speedy relief. We regard it as the best medicine ever put on the market for bowel complaint.—Mrs. E. G. Gregory, Fredericktown, Mo. "This cure is the best medicine ever put on the market for dysentery, summer complaints, colic and cholera infantum in children. It never fails to give prompt relief when used in reasonable time and the plain printed directions are followed. Many mothers have expressed their sincere gratitude for the cures it has effected. RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.
At a stated convention of May Flower Lodge No. 183 Knights of Pythias held at Castle Hall, Thompson, Mich., July 20th, 1893 the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Almighty Chancellor of the Universe in His infinite wisdom to call from His earthly labors our esteemed Brother, J. H. Allison, of May Flower Lodge No. 183, Knights of Pythias, therefore be it RESOLVED, That in the prime of his manhood when life and all its charms and prospects seemed most near and inviting by his sudden and early demise we have lost a Brother and friend doubly endeared to us by the ties of our fraternity and by his true and upright manliness. He was a loyal and honorable citizen a fearless conscientious man whom it was at all times a pleasure to meet and his presence from among us will be sadly missed. We sincerely mourn over our loss and deeply sympathize with our Sister Allison the relatives and friends.

RESOLVED, further, That our charter be draped for thirty days, and that a copy of these Resolutions be entered upon our record and a copy be presented to Sister Allison.

Signed on behalf of May Flower Lodge No. 183, Knights of Pythias.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY J. H. ALLISON TEST NO. 810.

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Great Commander of the Universe in His infinite wisdom to call from among us, our esteemed brother and past commander, J. H. Allison, of J. H. Allison Tent No. 810, K. O. T. M. Therefore be it

RESOLVED, That in his bright and pleasing manhood, when life and its prospects seemed so happy and promising, we have lost by his early demise a Sir Knight and brother, who was endeared to us by our fraternal ties and his manly life.

Brother Allison was ever a true friend, an earnest and ardent Sir Knight who always had the best interests of the Maccabees at heart. He was an honorable and trustworthy citizen, a man of integrity and purpose, with whom it was a pleasure at all times to associate.

We sincerely mourn his loss and sympathize with his family, relatives and friends.

RESOLVED further, That our charter be draped for thirty days, and that a copy be sent to Mrs. Allison, and a copy be forwarded to the Manistique Tribune and Pioneer.

Ell Hill, Lumber City, Pa., writes, "I have been suffering from Piles for twenty-five years and thought my case incurable. De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve was recommended to me as a pile cure, so I bought a box and it performed a permanent cure." This is only one of thousands similar cases. Eczema, sores and skin diseases yield quickly when it is used.

The Frost & Fanshaw Co. holds the boards at the Star Opera House the week of July 27th.

It would be hard to convince a man suffering from bilious colic that his agony is due to a microbe with an unpronounceable name. But one dose of De Witt's Colic & Cholera Cure will convince him of its power to afford instant relief. It kills pain. A. S. Putnam & Co.

A Minneapolis man fatally shot a Cheboygan druggist last week because said druggist had ruined a Minneapolis lady during her stay in Cheboygan last summer.

DEAR SIR: I have always been very much opposed to patent medicines, and considered them a universal humbug with but very few exceptions. At various times I have been troubled a great deal with my lungs, more particularly during the winter. About a year ago I was suffering with an attack brought on by a violent cold. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your White Wine of Peppermint. It helped me in a very few days. I used but one bottle and now my lungs are stronger than they have been for years. I would cheerfully recommend it to members of the bar that are in any way troubled with cough or lung diseases. JUDGE M. B. KOON, Minneapolis, Minn. For sale by A. S. Putnam & Co.

The things who have been responsible for the numerous store robberies in Chicago during the past two months were arrested in Detroit Sunday.

When we consider that the intestines are about five times as long as the body, we can realize the intense suffering experienced when they become inflamed. De Witt's Colic & Cholera Cure soothes inflammation at once and completely removes the difficulty. A. S. Putnam & Co.

Mr. Menary, formerly of the Escanaba Mirror office, was caller of this office Monday.

If it requires an annual outlay of $100.00 to insure a family against any serious consequence from an attack of bowel complaint during the year there are many who would feel it their duty to pay it; that they could not afford to risk their lives, and those of their family for such an amount. Any one can get this insurance for 25 cents, that being the price of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In almost every neighborhood some one has died from an attack of bowel complaint before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. One or two doses of this remedy will cure any ordinary case. It never fails. Can you afford to take the risk for so small an amount? For sale by A. S. Putnam & Co.

THE FINANCIAL PLANK.

The Republican party is unreservedly for sound money. It caused the enactment of the law providing for the resumption of specie payments in 1879; since then every dollar has been as good as gold.

"We are unalterably opposed to every measure calculated to debase our currency or impair the credit of our country. We are therefore opposed to the free coinage of silver, except by international agreement with the leading commercial nations of the world, which we pledge ourselves to promote, and until such agreement can be obtained, the existing gold standard must be preserved. All our silver and paper currency must be maintained at parity with gold, and we favor all measures designed to maintain inviolably the obligations of the United States, and all our money, whether coin or paper, at the present standard, the standard of the most enlightened nations."—Adopted by the Republican National Convention at St. Louis, June 18, 1896.

A FIGHT TO A FINISH BETWEEN THE BEST AND THE WORST

The Democratic party was so discredited as the result of its treasonable conduct from 1860 to 1865 that it has managed to keep itself alive since only by courting the support of the unthinking, the visionary and the dissatisfied. This policy culminated recently when these elements took complete possession of the organization wherein they had been accorded such hospitality. It had grown to be so homelike there that they decided to be proprietors instead of guests.

It is fortunate for the country that the Democratic party became the victim of ignorance and passion to which it had appealed. It is fortunate for the country, since it is no longer possible for that party to assume to be, in any sense, what it is not. Henceforth it can deceive no one with the air of respectability which a certain heaven of conservatism has lent to it in days gone by. It has wholly parted company with wisdom. It is no longer veiled by aught which bears the slightest semblance of Republicanism. Mounted upon its platform of repudiation and anarchy, it stands.

"A monster of such frightful mien That to be hated needs but to be seen."

Through the action of the Chicago convention, the Democratic party has nothing to sustain it but its own inherent tendencies to go wrong. It has boldly entered the list wholly on its own demerits. It has thrown down the gauge of battle to the constructive forces of the land. It has drawn the issue clearly, and sharply not so much between gold and silver as between honor and dishonor, order and disorder. It has pushed matters to such a juncture that there must now be a fight to a finish between what is best and what is worst in the national life.

As the result of this fight there cannot be the shadow of a doubt. The American people have always arisen to the height of every emergency which has confronted them, and they will arise to the height of this. They never fail to act when the necessity for action comes, and the more dangerous the foe the more overwhelming the stroke. When the smoke of November's battle lifts it will find the banner of Republicanism securely planted in every portion of the field. It will find the heterogeneous hosts of error which are being marshaled in the name of Democracy broken, routed, in one red burial blent.

WHAT FREE SILVER MEANS.

It means in practice that sixteen ounces of silver should be held as worth as much as one ounce of gold. American coin standard of fineness—that is, 900 parts of pure gold to 100 of alloy, will coin in gold dollars $18.60. Sixteen ounces of silver, American coin standard of fineness—that is, 600 parts of pure silver to 100 of alloy, at the rate of 415 1-2 grains to the dollar (the weight of the present standard silver dollar) will coin $18.60 in silver dollars.

These sixteen ounces of silver can be bought in the markets of the world to-day for $8.66 on an investment of $9.64, being about 87 per cent., if a holder of silver could take it to the mint and coin it without charge into silver dollars.

The advocates of free coinage favor a law that will allow any holder of silver bullion—or, in fact, silver or any kind (as the latter can readily be melted into bars) to have the right to take the same to any mint in the United States and convert it into silver coin free of charge.

It means that the government of the United States will advertise to the nations of the earth, that for every 52 cents' worth of silver they may ship to this country, the government will give them 100 cents. ready stamped for circulation as money.—Asbury Park, N. J. Daily Press.

DE VERE HALL'S COMPLIMENT.

The following interview relative to the candidacy of O. C. Tompkins for the auditor generalship on the Republican ticket, appeared in the Bay City Tribune of Saturday last.

Its significance is more apparent when it is stated that Hon. De Vere Hall, is widely known as one of the very few thoroughly equipped tax lawyers in Michigan, and he consequently understands fully the necessity for such qualifications in the head of the auditor general's department as he attributes to Mr. Tompkins. The interview is as follows:

"I have noticed among the candidates mentioned for auditor general on the Republican ticket the name of O. C. Tompkins, who has been for several years accountant in the auditor general's department at Lansing," said Hon. De Vere Hall yesterday. "I have known him intimately for a number of years. He is a clean-cut, polished gentleman, of wide acquaintance with the leading citizens of the state, and one who impresses most favorably all with whom he comes in contact."

"The auditor general's department is one of the most important, so far as concerns the interest of the individual citizens and the state itself, because the law intrusts to that department all matters connected with the collection of the taxes and it is important that the office of auditor general should be filled by one competent to discharge such important duties. As accountant in this department Mr. Tompkins has acquired a most thorough knowledge of the tax laws of the state and of the technical work connected therewith. I have been brought into intimate relation with him a great deal since his connection with the department, and I wish to say that I believe that the best interests of the people of the state and of the party to which I belong will be advanced by the nomination and election of Mr. Tompkins to the office of auditor general."

"I am pleased to see a disposition and spirit on the part of the Republicans in various parts of the state to recognize Mr. Tompkins' qualifications. It is a fitting tribute to his character and ability and it speaks well for the Republicans that they recognize Mr. Tompkins' qualities and ability and are disposed to advance the interests of the party by selecting one who has demonstrated his fitness by experience, to discharge the duties of the office."

DECEIVED BY THE SOUND.

There is something very alluring about the phrase, "free and unlimited coinage of silver." It calls up visions of opulence. It suggests reaching out and gathering in basket-fuls of the shining coin.

But let no one be deceived. Free silver or the free coining of silver means something without cost to the bullion-owner only. There will be no new and peculiar means of securing the silver under free coinage. Men must earn it by the sweat of their brow as they do now or they must produce something to sell for silver as at present.

Where then does the blessing of free silver come in? Its champions tell you the silver flood will secure for the toiler two dollars where now he gets but one, and the plentitude of dollars will double the price of the farmer's products.

But what will it profit the wage-earner if it will take two dollars to buy what one will buy now? And where is the farmer to receive benefit if the purchasing power of the dollar he receives for his product is one-half of what it is in the market of grace?

Senator Sherman is not to be followed as a political leader but his knowledge of the free coinage would cause a rise in the price of farm products," he said. "What good would that do? The money so paid will only buy half what it should or do. There is no use of having money if it will buy nothing. Farmers and wage-earners should give heed to sense instead of emotion in considering the free coinage question.—Free Press.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY HURLS A BOMB.

"Recent events have imposed upon the patriotic people of this country a responsibility greater than that of civil war. Then it was a stern duty to preserve the honor of the government."

In the contest patriotism is a party and national honor is dearer than any party name. The integrity and credit of the government are good now and must be with good. Our trouble is not with the character of the money we have, but with the threat to debase it."

Having destroyed business and confidence by a free coinage policy, it is now proposed to postpone things still worse by entering an era of depreciated currency. The content with inauguration of such free trade it now offers a new method which will diminish the value of the money in which wages and rents are paid.

Our creed embraces an honest dollar, an untarnished national credit, adequate revenues for the uses of the government, protection to labor and industry, preservation of the home market and reciprocity which will extend our foreign markets."

Senator Mason will accept a renomination. The senator presented this district in an able manner during his first term and deserves a renomination. We know of no aspirant we would rather support than the Senator.

"Billy" Mason of Chicago was a Centralia, Ill., the same evening with "Billy" Bryan of Lincoln, Neb. The Chicago Billy got in a crack at the other Billy's great hit about the "crown of thorns" and the "cross of gold." A dispatch says:

"And this from a Democrat," said Mason, a Democrat whose party has been engaged in shaking dice for underlings and giving us vinegar on a sponge of ink for the last four years. Liked this Dilate of old he washes his hands in the presence of the multitude and dived himself of responsibility. He talks of crucifying, does he? Do not remember that there would have been no crucifixion if Judas had not gone back on silver? Judas has betrayed his party into the populist hands of a ruffian, but thank God the King of silver will not betray 70,000,000 of American people."

Then did the populace of Centralia yell itself out of voice, and a surge of the yells could be heard at the station where the way orator was waiting for his train.

DE VERE HALL'S COMPLIMENT.

The following interview relative to the candidacy of O. C. Tompkins for the auditor generalship on the Republican ticket, appeared in the Bay City Tribune of Saturday last.

Its significance is more apparent when it is stated that Hon. De Vere Hall, is widely known as one of the very few thoroughly equipped tax lawyers in Michigan, and he consequently understands fully the necessity for such qualifications in the head of the auditor general's department as he attributes to Mr. Tompkins. The interview is as follows:

"I have noticed among the candidates mentioned for auditor general on the republican ticket the name of O. C. Tompkins, who has been for several years accountant in the auditor general's department at Lansing," said Hon. De Vere Hall yesterday. "I have known him intimately for a number of years, both in his social relations in his official capacity. He is a clean-cut, polished gentleman, with a wide acquaintance with the leading citizens of the state, and one who impresses most favorably all with whom he comes in contact.

The auditor general's department is the most important, so far as the interest of the individual and the state itself, because the duties of that department are connected with the collection of taxes, and it is important that the auditor general should be filled with a man of high character and ability. As accountant in this department, Mr. Tompkins has acquired a knowledge of the tax laws and of the technical details thereof. I have been in intimate relation with him in this connection with the interests of the party to be benefited by the nomination of Mr. Tompkins, and I believe that he will be a most successful candidate for the position."

Through the action of the convention, the Democrats have nothing to sustain their own inherent tendencies. It has boldly thrown down the gauntlet to the constructive land. It has drawn the sword and sharply not so gold and silver as dishonor, order and dishonor, order. It has pushed the juncture that there is a fight to a finish. The best and what national life.

As the result of the election cannot be the snare. The American people are arising to the height of a dignity which has come and they will arise to this. They never fail the necessity for action. The more dangerous the more overwhelming. When the smoke of battle lifts it will find the of Republicanism securely planted in every portion of the field. It will find the heterogeneous hosts of error which are being marshaled in the name of Democracy broken, routed, in one red burial blent.

WHAT FREE SILVER MEANS.

It means in practice that sixteen ounces of silver should be held as worth as much as one ounce of gold. American coin standard of fineness—that is, 900 parts of pure gold to where is the farmer to receive benefit if the purchasing power of the dollar he receives for his produce is one-half of what it is in the time of grace?

Senator Sherman is not to be followed as a political leader, but his knowledge of free coinage would cause a rise in the price of farm products," he said. "The what good would that do if the money so paid will only buy half what it should or does? There is no use of having money if it will buy nothing. Farmers and wage-earners should give heed to sense instead of in considering the free coinage question.—Free Press.

MCKINLEY HURLS A CHALLENGE.

"Recent events have imposed upon the patriotic people of this country a responsibility greater than that of civil war. Then it was a question to preserve the honor of the government.

In the contest patriotism is a party and national honor is at stake than any party name. The integrity and credit of the government are good now and must be with good. Our trouble is not with the character of the money we have, but with the threat to debase it. Having destroyed business and confidence by a free coinage policy, it is now proposed to do things still worse by entering upon an era of depreciated currency. Free trade it now offers a new policy which will diminish the value of the money in which wages and profits are paid.

Our creed embraces an unimpaired dollar, an untarnished national credit, adequate revenues for the uses of the government, protection to labor and industry, preservation of the home market and reciprocity which will extend our trade to all markets."

I have been in connection with him and wish to say that the interests of the department of the party to be advanced by the nomination of Mr. Tompkins as auditor general.

It is a pleasure to see a disposition on the part of the republicans in this part of the state to recognize Tompkins' qualifications. It is a tribute to his character and ability that speaks well for the republicans they recognize Mr. Tompkins' abilities and ability and are disposed to see the interests of the party by electing one who has demonstrated his ability by experience, to discharge the duties of the office."

DECEIVED BY THE SOUND.

There is something very alluring about the phrase, "free and unlimited coinage of silver." It calls up visions of opulence. It suggests reaching out and gathering in basketfuls of the shining coin.

But let no one be deceived. Free silver or the free coining of silver means something without cost to the bullion-owner only. There will be no new and peculiar means of securing the silver under free coinage. Men must earn it by the sweat of their brow as they do now or they must produce something to sell for silver as at present.

Where then does the blessing of free silver come in? Its champions tell you the silver flood will secure for the toiler two dollars where now he gets but one, and the plentitude of dollars will double the price of the farmer's products.

But what will it profit the wage-earner if it will take two dollars to buy what one will buy now? And where is the farmer to receive benefit if the purchasing power of the dollar he receives for his produce is one-half of what it is in the market of gold?

Senator Sherman is not to be followed as a political expedient but his knowledge of free coinage would cause a rise in the price of farm products," he says. "What good would that do the farmer who would only receive half what it should or do? There is no use of having a quantity of money if it will buy nothing.

Farmers and wage-earners should give heed to sense instead of emotion in considering the free coinage question.—Free Press.

McKINLEY HURLS A DERBOLT.

writes Dr. Fenner: "I had a heavy pain over my kidneys and cramps in my limbs for a long time. Also backache with scanty and turbid urine, bloating of limbs and a general DROPSICAL CONDITION of the system, caused by heart disease, from which I had suffered for years.
